

Whitley Chapel Parish Hall Trust Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy

Whitley Chapel Parish Hall Trust is committed to ensuring that vulnerable people who use our services are not abused and that working practices minimise the risk of such abuse. The trustees, volunteers and those people who use the Hall have a duty to identify abuse and report it.

Definition

Vulnerable adults are people who are over 18 years of age and are getting or may need help and services to live in the community. Vulnerable adults may be unable to take care of themselves and unable to protect themselves from harm or exploitation by other people.

Abuse can include:

- physical,
- financial,
- material,
- sexual,
- psychological,
- discriminatory,
- emotional abuse
- neglect.

Abuse can take place in any setting, public or private, and can be perpetuated by anyone.

Rights & Responsibilities

Responsibilities of Whitley Chapel Parish Hall Management committee:

- To ensure trustees, volunteers and those people who use the Hall are aware of vulnerable adult's need for protection
- To notify the appropriate agencies if abuse is identified or suspected
- To support and where possible secure the safety of individuals and ensure that all referrals to services have full information in relation to identified risk and vulnerability
- To Criminal Records Board (CRB) check volunteers that have access to or work with Vulnerable Adults

Responsibilities of Whitley Chapel Parish Hall Trust trustees, volunteers and those people who use the Hall:

- To be familiar with the vulnerable adult protection policy
- To take appropriate action in line with the policy of Whitley Chapel Parish Hall Trustees
- To declare any existing or subsequent convictions.

Support for those who report abuse

All those making a complaint or allegation or expressing concern, whether they are trustees, volunteers, Hall users, carers or members of the general public should be reassured that:

- They will be taken seriously
- Their comments will usually be treated confidentially, but their concerns may be shared with the appropriate authorities if they or others are at significant risk

The Vulnerable Adult has the right:

- To be made aware of this policy
- To have alleged incidents recognised and taken seriously
- To receive fair and respectful treatment throughout
- To be involved in any process as appropriate
- To receive information about the outcome

We are also committed to reviewing our policy and good practice annually.
