Readings:

Isaiah 60:1-6

‘Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.

<sup>2</sup> See, darkness covers the earth
and thick darkness is over the peoples,

but the Lord rises upon you
and his glory appears over you.
<sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
<sup>4</sup> ‘Lift up your eyes and look about you:
all assemble and come to you;
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters are carried on the hip.
<sup>5</sup> Then you will look and be radiant,
your heart will throb and swell with joy;
the wealth on the seas will be brought to you,
to you the riches of the nations will come.
<sup>6</sup> Herds of camels will cover your land,
young camels of Midian and Ephah.
And all from Sheba will come,
bearing gold and incense
and proclaiming the praise of the Lord.

Verses from Psalm 72

Endow the king with your justice, O God,
the royal son with your righteousness.
<sup>2</sup> May he judge your people in righteousness,
your afflicted ones with justice.
<sup>3</sup> May the mountains bring prosperity to the people,
the hills the fruit of righteousness.
<sup>4</sup> May he defend the afflicted among the people
and save the children of the needy;
may he crush the oppressor.
<sup>5</sup> May he endure as long as the sun,
as long as the moon, through all generations.
<sup>6</sup> May he be like rain falling on a mown field,

like showers watering the earth.
<sup>7</sup> In his days may the righteous flourish
and prosperity abound till the moon is no more.
May the kings of Sheba and Seba
present him with gifts.
<sup>11</sup> May all kings bow down to him
and all nations serve him.
<sup>12</sup> For he will deliver the needy who cry out,
the afflicted who have no one to help.
<sup>13</sup> He will take pity on the weak and the needy
and save the needy from death.
<sup>14</sup> He will rescue them from oppression and violence,
for precious is their blood in his sight.

Matthew 2: 1-12

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem <sup>2</sup> and asked, ‘Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.’

<sup>3</sup> When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup> When he had called together all the people’s chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born. <sup>5</sup> ‘In Bethlehem in Judea,’ they replied, ‘for this is what the prophet has written:

<sup>6</sup> “‘But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come a ruler
who will shepherd my people Israel.’”

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. <sup>8</sup> He sent them to Bethlehem and said, ‘Go and search carefully for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship him.’

<sup>9</sup> After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. <sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. <sup>11</sup> On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.
